

ACTING OUT LOUD

Girls, you're invited to join others like you for a series of creative workshops like no other! You'll learn how to use improv, dance, and other performing arts to build confidence and discover positive solutions to the kinds of problems you may face in school, like peer pressure or bullying.

Hosted and led by our partner S. Novie Payne, a licensed clinical therapist who specializes in transforming lives, these workshops will take place on Monday evenings over a period of six weeks.

Find out more about these fun, unique, and effective workshops at www.actingoutloudtherapy.com.
