

EDUCATION

BRINGING IT

MICHELLE M. SIMMONS
CHIEF ACADEMIC OFFICER
CHARLESTON CO. SCHOOL DISTRICT

Michelle Simmons is a distinguished leader and dedicated education advocate with a remarkable career spanning over 26 years. As the Chief Academic Officer for Charleston County School District, she has been instrumental in shaping educational opportunities and providing vital support to students and families throughout the greater Charleston community. In her role as Chief Academic Officer, Simmons oversees a dynamic team responsible for curriculum implementation, special education services, and comprehensive student support, including social work and mental health provisions. Her commitment to creating an inclusive and supportive educational environment has made a significant impact on countless lives. Michelle Simmons' career exemplifies a profound dedication to educational excellence and advocacy, shaping the future of countless students and families in Charleston and beyond.

KEY ISSUES

- 1 Access to high quality programs and courses for all scholars
- 2 Pathways for leadership opportunities for minorities