

GOVERNMENT & LAW

BRINGING IT

RACHEL T. BROWN

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS GOVCIO

Rachel T. Brown is a notable advocate for women and girls, recognized for her unwavering dedication to empowering them to achieve their full potential. Her professional expertise is rooted in a meticulous role in government contract administration, where she ensures rigorous compliance with regulations and performs detailed cost and price analyses of proposals. Rachel's commitment to excellence is also reflected in her educational pursuits. She is currently working towards a doctorate in Public Administration, building on a solid foundation with a master's degree in Executive Leadership and a Lean Six Sigma Green Belt certification. Her academic and professional achievements are complemented by her active involvement in community service. As a member of the Board of Directors at Florence Crittenton and a mentor at Be a Mentor, Rachel dedicates her time and expertise to fostering growth and development in others.

KEY ISSUES

- 1 Empowering women and girls
- 2 Education and Opportunity