

STEM

BRINGING IT

TAWANA N. TOLBERT

SUPERVISOR

CUSTOMER ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Tawana Tolbert is a noted professional dedicated to enhancing the lives of individuals and families through resourceful and impactful outreach initiatives. As a key figure at Dominion Energy South Carolina, Tolbert excels in connecting income-eligible customers, senior citizens, veterans, persons with disabilities, and medically dependent individuals with essential resources beyond their basic utility needs. Her role involves providing direct supervision and support to a dynamic team of Energy Outreach Assistants, ensuring that the company's outreach programs are both effective and widely recognized. Tolbert plays an active role in fostering community and professional development. She serves as the Chair for the Southeast Chapter of the African American Resource Group, where she has spearheaded significant events such as HBCU Day in February 2024, celebrating and bringing together participants from Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

KEY ISSUES

- 1 Advocating for the recognition and support of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs)
- 2 Identifying community leaders/organizations and programs in place to disrupt poverty